Missionaries of the Week

☞ Tom & Penny Latham, Brazil, sent this note today: "Penny has been in the hospital for two days...exams revealed a lack of separator between her 5th and 6th discs, just below the neck. This is causing a pinched nerve, resulting in constant and severe pain. She is on morphine most of the time. We are hoping the insurance company will approve the surgery to separate the discs ASAP...Possibly, she will be having surgery on Friday. Pray for her. We would appreciate it."

☞ Ben & Ashley Fairchild have arrived on the field and are settling in to life in a new culture. Their visa extension paperwork was approved and is ready to take to Singapore at the beginning of March. Language school began February 11. Pray for good progress in learning the language.
