Missionaries of the Week

☞ Ben & Ashley Fairchild arrived on the field after a 39 hour trip. All their luggage made it, and they had no problems with customs. The Lord provided a place for them to move into, and they plan to be there for the next year of language school, which will start on February 4. They ask us to pray for their transition into a new culture and the paperwork they need to start for their year-long visas. Their current visas are only good for sixty days.

☞ Craig & LeAnna Comstock, New Zealand, will be finishing up their furlough in the next two months. At the time they wrote, they only had thirteen meetings left. They ask that we pray that their church in New Zealand will find a new meeting place that will have more seating space, more parking, and a classroom for children's Sunday school. They will also need to secure housing when they return to the field.
