Missionaries of the Week

☞ Randy & Linda Perkins, Australia, are praising the Lord that Randy's cancer is still in remission. However, due to damage caused by chemo treatments, part of his jaw bone has died and is infected. He will have surgery on it on Tuesday, March 19, at Mayo Clinic in Jacksonville, FL. They ask us to pray for a successful operation.

☞ Craig & LeAnna Comstock, New Zealand, are finished with their furlough and will be returning to the field this week. They fly out of Chicago to Auckland this Friday. They ask that we pray that God will provide a rental home for a good price. They will live with coworkers upon their return but need to find their own place as soon as possible. They will be preparing for teen camp, and Craig will be getting ready to teach a Bible Institute class in May.
