Missionaries of the Week

☞ Brian & Jennifer Buckley, have several encouraging things to report. Recently, a local friend was speaking in church, and Brian was able to translate his message for the English speakers. This is a milestone in his language development. Brian plans to preach his first message in the local language this month.

A young boy who came to camp last summer and expressed interest in learning more about the gospel recently attended a church function with his father. They agreed to listen to a gospel presentation that Brian was able to share with them in their own language, using a Bible that they could read and understand. Both father and son prayed and asked the Lord to save them! We need to pray fervently for these new believers.
