Missionaries of the Week

☞ Luke & Charlotte Crockett, Mauritius, write, "We were excited to get permission from the school where Charlotte works as a nurse to host a teen youth group on Wednesdays after school. We start with an organized game, and then have a preaching and teaching time afterward. We just started last month and already have 20 teens coming. Some of them are from Hindu or non-Christian families. Several of the students have expressed to us that they are so grateful to have a place where they can be open about their Christian faith as they are afraid to talk about it at school. Cayden and I drop off three of the boys at their homes afterwards, which gives us a great time of discussion in the car. One of them announced to the group last week that he had decided to dedicate his life to Christ...he said, 'Mr. Luke, I've learned more from youth group in one month than I have my whole life in my church!'"
